

ABBAS HILMI II PAPERS

AGREEMENT

I, the undersigned, am granted the consent of the Trustees of the Mohamed Ali Foundation and of the University of Durham to examine documents or copies of documents which are the property of the Mohamed Ali Foundation upon condition that:

- (a) I do not damage or remove any of the documents.
- (b) I do not publish or reproduce any of the text or any photograph or other illustration contained in the documents without the prior written consent of the University and a condition of that consent is that I have the obligation to obtain the consent in writing of the owner of the copyright in any material which I wish to publish and the University and the Trustees shall have no liability in respect thereof and the written consent of the University shall not be deemed to be the written consent of the copyright owner.
- (c) I represent the information acquired from the documents in a manner consistent with their true historical and personal context.
- (d) I accept and comply with any other condition imposed by the University upon the examination and/or subsequent reproduction of the said text and photographs.
- (e) I give the following credit to any authorised use of the said text and photographs.

“Reproduced by kind permission of the Trustees of the Mohamed Ali Foundation and of the University of Durham.”

Please tell us how you first discovered the collection:

I give permission for my name to be shared with the Trustees of the Mohamed Ali Foundation. This permission may be revoked at any time by emailing pg.library@durham.ac.uk. Please leave blank if you do not wish your name to be shared: in this case the annual report made to the Foundation will be anonymised, e.g. ‘PhD candidate’, University name, Thesis title. Access to the collection will still be permitted if you choose not to give your permission.

Data Protection: we collect and process your personal data in order to provide access to the buildings and collections in our care, in line with current legislation and professional standards. Your personal information will not be shared outside Durham University, unless you have ticked the above authorisation, and in which case only your name, institutional affiliation, and research topic will be shared each year with the Foundation. See also the Summary Privacy Statement for Culture Durham online (<https://www.dur.ac.uk/library/about/policies/privacynotice/>).
